

This Is a Test

Hey, it's me again. The official mascot of the First Annual Gathering of the Tribes Casual Get-Together, which was held on Saturday April 13, 2013, at the Homestead in Oyster Bay, LI.

Originally, your reunion committee planned on simply posting the photos from the big party, like they usually do. But then they were contacted by the New York State Board of Regents and informed that because this involves a high school reunion, it falls under the jurisdiction of the Regents Committee, even though you haven't been a student for, like, decades. News to us.

Nowadays in New York State, learning of any kind apparently has no value unless it can be quantified via a standardized test. This even includes just looking at photos of the event. So we had to submit all hundred-plus shots to the Board of Regents, which returned them to us in the form of a new statewide exam called the Board of Regents Assessment of Information with No Realistic Application Today or Tomorrow, which yields the catchy acronym BRAIN ROTT®.

In a recent ruling, the Board of Regents has also instructed all local school boards to change their names to the Bored of Education, "to better reflect our mission for the children of New York State. Because, after all, children were once the future!" By all accounts, from students and teachers alike, mission accomplished!

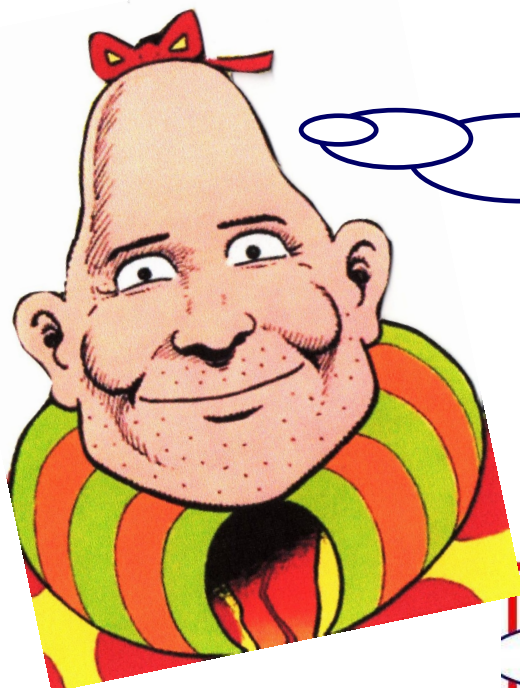

So get out a No. 2 pencil, some vials of Adderal, and prepare to spend the next few hours immersed in BRAIN ROTT®. No need to feel any pressure! Your score will merely determine the course of the rest of your life. Best of luck, duckies!

I will be your proctologist—um, sorry, proctor—for this exam! (I'm new to this, 'kay?) Please read the instructions silently to yourselves while I read them aloud. And no talking, cheating, snickering behind the proctor's back, or tossing fire crackers in his direction, either. Actually, I'm sneaking outside for a smoke and a nip or two, kiddies, so I won't see you until the test is over. Honor system, peoples!

Hey, all you lazy, long-haired hippies! Take a bath, will ya, and join us at the ...

Question 1 (cultural history): Look at the official poster of the First Annual Gathering of the Tribes Casual Get-Together. Match the countercultural references (letters) with the correct answers (numbers) in column two.

- A. 1. Peace sign (or “footprint of the American chicken,” depending upon your take on the Vietnam War)
- B. 2. Dr. Timothy Leary
- C. 3. R. Crumb’s Mr. Natural
- D. 4. Guitar neck from Wood stock Music & Art Fair logo
- E. 5. Me! Zippy the Pinhead!
- F. 6. Uptight, plastic, bourgeoisie suburbanites too hung up to let their freak flags fly, man!
- G. 7. Modern equivalent of “Turn on! Tune in! Drop Out!” for people fifty-five and older
- H. 8. Fritz the Cat
- I. 9. R. Crumb’s Keep-on-Truckin’ dude
- J. 10. “Gathering of the Tribes” (also known as the “Human Be-In”): the event in San Francisco’s Golden Gate Park on January 14, 1967, that heralded the Summer of Love.

Answers:

- |       |      |
|-------|------|
| A. 5  | F. 7 |
| B. 4  | G. 3 |
| C. 10 | H. 9 |
| D. 1  | I. 6 |
| E. 2  | J. 8 |

Question 2 (math/physics): Among the first to arrive were (from left to right) Amy Lubow Downs and reunion committee member Larry Licht, both from the class of 1972, and social studies–history teacher Mr. Ira Greene, now an attorney.

If Larry and Amy take a train from New York to Larry's home in Scottsdale, Arizona, traveling at 60 miles per hour, and Mr. Greene takes a train to Cincinnati, Ohio, traveling at 100 mph, which party will arrive at its destination first?

Answer: Larry and Amy. No one in his right mind wants to go to Cincinnati. Mr. Greene will quickly come to his senses and change trains in Cleveland for a connection to Chicago, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City —anywhere but Cincinnati.

The reunion committee's Paula Wood ('75) with Mary Vegliante Comisso ('75).

Jeffrey Bortnick and Jeff Bennett from the class of 1976.

From the class of 1968—that's right: '68, not '78 or '88—Dolores (Dee) D'Ascernio Mason and Nick Pellicoro. They were a couple back in the day; you can kinda tell, right?

Question 3 (general): Members of the class of 1969 actually beat everyone there: a bunch of them came early for dinner. Facing the camera (more or less) from left to right are Michelle Martin Gonzalez, Janet Giannetto (hidden), Jackie Holtzman Scher, Ellen Siber, Ellen Lewis Spergel, Carole Kauff Shapiro, and Alan Shapiro. No less an authority than Mr. Robert Hoffman has called the class of '69 "a wild, wild bunch."

True or False: We will refrain from making the all-too-obvious old-people/Early Bird Special joke.

Answer: False. Sorry, way too tempting!

Fair and balanced: And at the other end of the table are Alan Shapiro, Linda Fils, Ilene Soberman Levine, Patrick O'Brien, Mr. Ira Greene, and Michelle Martin Gonzalez.

"I had lots of fun. I found it very amusing when people I didn't know asked me when I graduated from Jericho. They don't know what to say when I tell them 1958. This makes me feel quite youthful indeed. Everyone was so kind to me. They wouldn't let me pay for anything! I think the greatest reward for any teacher is to be remembered as a positive force in a student's life. As I was leaving, someone I had not seen since I left Jericho came up to me and thanked me for having been his teacher. Mark told me that I had made him a better student and given him a solid foundation for future study and for his work. And he's in business, not academia. As a lawyer, the only comparison that stands equivalent to this in terms of endorsement of one's professional life would be keeping a wrongfully accused person out of jail. How lucky I have been to have had the privilege of belonging to two great professions!"

Ellen Siber and Ellen Lewis Spergel.

Question 4 (history): Nice shot of four members of the class of 1974: Nancy Tiegel Espuche, Elyse Laddy Locks, Louise Feldherr Frebowitz, and Susan Roggen Tanke. If you look v-e-r-y closely and are attuned to the spirit world, you can also see the ghost of which important figure from history? (Hint: at right, with hand poised to pull fire alarm.)

Chester A.
Arthur

B.
Moms Mabley

C.
King Edward
the Confessor

D.
Charo

Answer: Ghost? What the hell are you talking about?!? Lay off the sauce, will ya?!? Really!

Always great to see Ken Longo ('71) and wife Tricia.

Question 5 (math): David Carol ('76), Mike Diehl ('75), and Lori Kroll LoSchiavo ('75). What percentage of those pictured are from the class of 1975?

- A. 50 percent.
- B. 100 percent.
- C. 0 percent.
- D. 66.6 percent.
- E. None of the above.

Answer: (D). If you got this question wrong, you might want to bring your abacus to the repair shop. It's clearly malfunctioning.

Always love these multiclass reunions for the mix of people. Here are Terri Halperin Eaton ('75) with the class of '72's Paul Gress, who graduated with Terri's older bro, Howard Halperin.

Bruce Steiner ('68) with Doug Baumuel ('74). Doug came in from from his home in Massachusetts to be inducted into the Jericho High School Alumni Hall of Fame, which was held on April 11, and was able to stick around for the big party two nights later.

Multiyear reunions also bring out siblings. (Above) Estelle Oliva Scarpinato ('70) with sister Dianne Oliva ('74), and (right) Paula Pellicoro Klein ('66) with Claudia Pellicoro Rienzo ('72). Estelle came with her hubby, Manny Scarpinato ('68).

Question 6 (popular culture): Larry Levinson from the class of '69 (with fiancée and honorary Jerichonian Betty Cohen—she's come to more JHS reunions than most of you) came as Mad Men's Don Draper (see his self-made name badge). With all due respect, give four (4) reasons why this is not a very convincing impersonation:

Answers:

1. He is not chain-smoking one cigarette after another.
2. Nor is he pouring himself a stiff drink every time you turn around.
3. Larry is smiling. If he really were Don Draper, he'd be exuding existential angst 24/7 as he struggles to understand a changing world.
4. Betty is smiling too, and, unlike every single female character on that show, doesn't appear at all long-suffering.

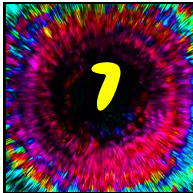

Okay, now the party has really started: Mrs. Karen Schwartz is in the house! We'd sent out an email (right) asking for a gallant volunteer to drive Mrs. S. to the party and back, and a number of people offered, but '74's Leslie Rothkopf Berman (second from left) did the honors. Randy Ringler ('73) is at far left, and Elyse Laddy Locks ('74), at far right.

Driving Mrs. Schwartz

We also had a number of Jericho couples in attendance, like (above) Sandy Peterson Wainick ('78) and Steven Wainick ('75), and (left) Joanne Stahl Sandiford ('71) and Richard Sandiford ('69). Nice!

Question 7 (English): Authors Patty Romanowski Bashe (civilian) and Ellen Meister ('75) discuss misplaced modifiers, conjugation (at any party, after a few drinks, doesn't the conversation always turn to conjugation?), and dangling participles. That's Ellen's husband, Mike, in the middle.

The three aforementioned terms come from which discipline?

- A. Science and medicine.
- B. Grammar, English, writing—that kinda stuff.
- C. String theory.
- D. Art history.

Answer: (A). Misplaced modifiers and conjugation are fairly benign medical conditions, but dangling participles, which generally affect men fifty-five and older, can be excruciatingly painful. Dr. Mehmet Oz recommends seeing either a urologist or Oprah. (That woman can do anything, apparently.).

Wearing perfectly complementary colors, Lorraine Muller Huether and Diana Visalli Cusimano, both from '74. See how psychically connected we are, just from having attended the same school?

How's this for school spirit: Robin Wolff Rakowski (left) from the class of '74 brought her gold Jericho Jayettes letter J—and also a very nice friend of hers, Margueritte.

Yowza! Terri Halperin Eaton ('75), Roxanne Litt Berlin ('77), and Shari Weinstock Davis ('76). Terri lives in Massachusetts; Roxanne, in Manhattan; and Shari, in Connecticut.

Question 8 (geography): Roy Fiorino ('71), Elyse Laddy Locks ('74), and Kraig Libstag ('71), who drove down from his home in Vermont.

Speaking of Vermont, the Green Mountain State is renowned for its:

- A. Maple syrup.
- B. Obesity and chronic indigestion. (See "A," above.)
- C. Spontaneous outbreaks of brutal fisticuffs and brick throwing on random street corners.
- D. Superiority to its neighbor New Hampshire.

Answer:

Who cares! Vermont doesn't have a single professional sports franchise, not even curling! How on earth do the people pass the time up there in that frozen hellscape? Don't they have, like, only two hours of sunlight a day, anyway?

Debra Tuccillo Kenney ('75) strikes a striking pose while behind her folks rummage around for their name badges.

Linda Warheit Roberts ('74) came with husband David Roberts ('74) and Caryn Buchner Coville ('74) and husband Tim.

Isn't she pretty in pink? That's Cindy Rosa Pelzar ('71), David Kass ('69), and a dated Psychedelic Furs musical reference.

Nice shot of the class of '75's Gloria Rothstein and Michael Sammis. Mike came all the way from California; Gloria, from not quite so far away. She lives in Jericho. We hear it's very nice there.

Question 9 (US history): (At right) You would never know it to look at 'em, but Paula Pellicoro Klein and Judy Berg Birnbaum had the distinction of being the two oldest alumni at the party. They graduated JHS in 1966, which leads us to the test question ...

Who was the president of the United States in 1966?

Answer: According to Wikipedia, actor Bob Denver of Gilligan's Island fame. Bonus question: Who was his secretary of state? Willie Mays.

Even when it's a great party, sometimes you've got to step out and get some air.

(Above) Mike Diehl and Jeffrey Arkin from the class of '75 hit the mean streets of quaint Oyster Bay, a town with a million stories. Okay, maybe not a million, but probably ... a hundred? No, definitely too high. More like a half dozen stories. Still, it's a town that keeps its secrets close to the vest.

(Below) Philip Bashe ('72) of the reunion tribal council with the class of 1973's Virginia Ferrante Cammareri.

How painfully cool is Jericho High? So cool that even people who didn't graduate from the place come to our reunions. Case in point: That's Linda Fils from the class of '69 (right) with Dick Hoesten and his wife, Sue. Dick went to a local private school but has remained friends with a number of Jerichonioids.

(Below) Here's Dick again, with Mark Silverman—who went to Westbury High—plus Glenn Handler ('73) and the class of 1970's Mark Rosenfeld ('70).

Question 10 (Sociology): Yay, he made it! Before heading to the Homestead, Mr. Robert Hoffman (with Lori Kroll LoSchiavo from the class of 1975) had to put in an appearance at a thirty-year reunion for the class of 1983. Naturally, our party was far superior, for which of the following reasons:

- A. We did not make everyone line up and re-create the elaborate choreography to Michael Jackson's "Thriller," in full werewolf makeup and costumes.
- B. No one at our reunion was trying to be funny by repeating ad nauseam the popular mid-1980s catch-phrase "Where's the beef?!" to the annoyance of all.
- C. Although the class of '83 is, like, a decade younger than us, we are infinitely more fun.
- D. All of the above.

Answer: (D). Compared to our party, the class of 1983's affair was like visiting a wax museum.

From the class of 1969, Jackie Holtzman Scher and Ellen Lewis Spergel.

(Above) Doug Baumoel ('74) with Susan Gallo ('75). We keep telling Susan to stop throwing that mean slider-curve of hers (so taxing on the arm), but she just won't listen! (Below) Dianne Oliva ('74) and Artie Monk ('75).

And from the class of 1972, Stu Fishman with Marsha Berdugo.

Question 11 (entry-level psychology): Don't waste your time trying to identify these four jokers. They weren't with our party. Late in the evening, they pinned on name badges that belonged to some JHS folks who weren't able to make it. Funny. Real, real funny. So how did we exact revenge?

- A. Found their car in the parking lot and poured sugar in the gas tank.
- B. Deflated all four tires.
- C. Stole all four tires and left the vehicle up on cinder blocks.
- D. None of the above

Answer: (D). *Of course we didn't do any of those things! We're from Jericho—white-collar crime only! But we did fix them with disapproving side glances and even threw in a few menacing tsk-tsk sounds. So we're pretty sure these petty hoodlums won't be pulling any shenanigans like that ever again! Yup, we showed 'em. Showed 'em goooooood!*

The class of 1972's Bob Kornreich with Mary Guerra.

Dancing master Paul Pellicoro ('74) and, from the class of 1969, Janet Giannetto.

Three from the class of 1968: Grace Andresini, Dr. Mark Grand, and Dee D'Ascernio Mason.

Zellie Assael Oroc, who came in all the way from Arizona, with friend Mary Reider. Both of them graduated in 1975.

Question 12 (biology): What phenomenon is being illustrated by these two sequential photos of the class of 1972's Michael Lewis and Claudia Pellicoro Rienzo?

- A. The disinhibiting effects of alcohol.
- B. Orophopodiscus, a common condition in people over forty, where, for no apparent reason, the tongue just flops out of the mouth, all willy-nilly like. If it hasn't happened to you yet, trust us, it will.
- C. Seizures brought on by the flash of the camera.
- D. None of the above.

Answer: (D). What is wrong with you?! It's just two good friends having fun together!.Do you always have to overanalyze and overpathologize everything? Jeez!

Question 13 (spelling): Fill in the missing letters from the names of these four folks from the class of 1975:

- A. L_ri Kroll LoSchiavo.
- B. Michael Sa_mis.
- C. Andr_w Geyer.
- D. Lis_ Gambella.

Answers: (A) o, (B) m, (C) e, (D) a.

(Below) Justin Bashe (son of Philip and Patty Bashe) had a lot to talk about with Mr. Harry Posnanski: they're both model train buffs. In fact, Mr. P. used to be a member of the train club that Justin belongs to, Long Island Model R.R. Engineers.

Question 14 (general): This nice photo of the class of '75's Scott Yanofsky, Rosemary Rosetto Traub, Artie Monk, and Beth Polon Silverman has nothing to do with the following question. There was a private party going on in the "Roosevelt Room" in back, featuring a bunch of biker types and a decrepit blues band that resembled onetime low-level roadies for the Allman Brothers who'd been dismissed for being bad influences on Gregg Allman. What were they all celebrating?

- A. One of the guests, a big dude nicknamed "Napalm," just got a new bike. Don't touch his effing bike, if you know what's good for you! Don't even breathe near it, or he'll cut you open and gut you like a perch.
- B. Someone just got out of maximum-security prison!
- C. Someone's old lady recently robbed a 7-Eleven and wanted to share the spoils with the gang.

Answer: We prefer not knowing, thank you very much.

Question 15 (genealogy): Five Pellicoros were at the party, setting an all-time reunion world record. At the top are Paul ('74) and Nick ('68), and in the bottom row, Jon ('70), honorary Pellicoro Mrs. Karen Schwartz—a close friend of the whole family—Paula ('66), and Claudia ('72). But which Pellicoro is missing?

- A. Tito Pellicoro, plushy enthusiast.
- B. Percival "P-Rod" Pellicoro, noted pool hustler.
- C. Ada "Old Spice" Pellicoro, who was unceremoniously tossed out of the Spice Girls "singing" group just before their international fame, due to her regrettable choice of stage name.
- D. Professor Peter Piper Picked a Peck of Pickled Peppers Pellicoro, fan of alliteration.
- E. No one's missing; all present and accounted for.

Patti Pensavalle-Halleberg ('79) and friend Denise Schauer.

Alice Mansberger Norris and '71's Cindy Rosa Pelzar.

Question 16 (American history): Mrs. Karen Schwartz catches up with the class of '69's Janet Giannetto, Ellen Siber, Jackie Holtzman Scher, and Ellen Lewis Spergel at the Homestead in Oyster Bay. The town's most famous citizen, Teddy Roosevelt, was known for his pithy sayings. Which of the following quotations is not attributable to the twenty-sixth prez?

- A. "Speak softly but carry a big stick."
- B. "Nobody cares how much you know until they know how much you care."
- C. "I like big butts, and I cannot lie / You other brothers can't deny / That when a girl walks in with an itty bitty waist / And a round thing in your face / You get sprung ..."
- D. "No man is above the law, and no man is below it."

Answer: We were pretty sure that answer C was a lyric to rapper Sir Mix-A-Lot's "Baby Got Back." But Wikipedia insists that T.R. said that too, so who are we to argue?

From the class of 1977, Regina Fenaroli and guest Tony Cannone.

Jodi Schechter-Dennenberg ('77), Mark Douenias ('75), Dianne Oliva ('74), and Scott Yanofsky ('75).

Amy Lubow Downs ('72) and, from '74, Louise Feldherr Frebowitz, Doug Baumel, and Nancy Tiegel Espuche.

Diana Visalli Cusimano ('74), sister-in-law Christine Visalli, Anne Mansberger Bachteler ('72), and Jon Pellicoro ('70). The guy in light blue didn't go to JHS and has been cursing his rotten luck ever since.

Question 17 (popular culture/musicology): At right, seven from 1975: Mary Vigliante Commisso, Lori Kroll LoSchiavo, Mary Reider, Zellie Assael Oroc, Beth Polon Silverman, Bonne Paley, and Shari Franklin. The summer that they graduated, the Bee Gees scored their first hit in three years with “Jive Talkin’,” which launched their huge comeback as white-suited, falsetto-voiced soul men. Can you name the three Gibb brothers?

Answer: Alvin, Simon, and Theodore.

Artie Monk ('75), Lili Weiser Green ('77), Mike Sammis ('75), Terri Halperin Eaton ('75), Mercury Caronia ('75).

(Above) If the class of '72's Philip Bashe's and Claudia Pellicoro Rienzo's smiles look pained, it's because they had to maintain this pose for ten minutes while not one but two people fumbled around with Phil's E-Z-monkey-tested aim-and-shoot-duh camera. F-i-n-a-l-l-y, just as muscle spasms were setting in, Claudia's brother Jon Pellicoro ('70) came to the rescue and pressed the right button. (Below) Marvin Chertok ('69).
