● VAUGHAN MONROE, "GHOST RIDERS IN THE SKY"

AN OLD COWPOKE WENT RIDIN' OUT ONE DARK AND WINDY DAY.
UPON A RIDGE HE RESTED AS HE WENT ALONG HIS WAY.
WHEN ALL AT ONCE A MIGHTY HERD OF RED-EYED COWS HE SAW A-PLOWIN' THROUGH THE RAAGED SKIES AND UP A CLOUDY DRAW.
YIPPIE AYE AYY, YIPPIE AYE OH! THE GHOST HERD IN THE SKY.

AUTHENTIC SONGS OF THE OLD WEST

JOHN WATKINS

"Hold on there, pilgrim. Call me by my real name, Marion Robert Morrison, and I'll fill ya full of lead. Now, git!"

It was a day of dueling reunions. The JHS class of 1964 was having its sixtieth—yes, sixtieth—reunion that night just down the road at the Viana Hotel and Spa in Westbury, and several of 'em stopped by to party with us first. Impressive stamina! (Above) Marilyn DellaVecchia Profita and Bob Raiber.

Cowboys hats were the order of the day, it being "The Last Round-up." You had yer choice of black, white, or pink. We think you'll agree that Jerichonians look pretty bitchin' in cowboy hats! No one agreed to have their photo taking wearing the assless chaps we offered. Maybe next time.

(Left) The Jericho Jayhawk came all duded out in a Western shirt and cowboy hat with sheriff's badge. He's one mean hombre, so keep your distance.

(Below) Looking none the worse for just having broken out of the hooskaw, six-guns a-blazin', are the class of 1968's Paul Jendrzjewski and Walter Bachman, both of whom were longtime faculty members at JHS.

● MARTY ROBBINS, "EL PASO"

OUT IN THE WEST TEXAS TOWN OF EL PASO,
I FELL IN LOVE WITH A MEXICAN GIRL.
NIGHT TIME WOULD FIND ME IN ROSA'S CANTINA.
MUSIC WOULD PLAY AND FELINA WOULD WHIRL.

(Above) We love it when Jericho alumnuts show up unannounced, as with the class of 1971's Bill Pastarnak. He lives just minutes away in Glen Cove and popped by to say hello.

ANNIE OAKLEY

● EDDY ARNOLD
'THE STREETS OF LAREDO
(COWBOY'S LAMENT)'

AS I WALKED OUT IN THE STREETS OF LAREDO,
AS I WALKED OUT IN LAREDO ONE DAY.
I SPIED A POOR COWBOY WRAPPED UP
IN WHITE LINEN.
WRAPPED UP IN WHITE LINEN AS COLD
AS THE CLAY..

(Right) Back in the saddle again are JHS '68 classmates Betsy Levy Sgroi and Neil Smilowitz.

(Below) You gotta love a man who wears his own cowboy hat to a cowboy-themed party, although we suspect that the hat being modeled by former JHS history teacher Mr. Ira Greene is actually a hat he used to wear a lot as a devoted Civil War reenactor. But hey, close enough!

● GENE AUTRY, 'BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN'

I'M BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN.
OUT WHERE A FRIEND IS A FRIEND.
WHERE THE LONGHORN CATTLE FEED
ON THE LOWLY JIMSON WEED.
YES, I'M BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN.

(Below) Ridin' the long, dusty trail from their home in Hicksville up to Oyster Bay are Roy Fiorino from the class of '71 and his wife, June. Bet you folks are parched and could use some grub, too!

GARY COOPER

● BOY ROGERS,
"TUMBLING TUMBLEWEEDS"

SEE THEM TUMBLING DOWN,
PLEADING THEIR LOVE TO THE GROUND.
LONELY BUT FREE I'LL BE FOUND.
DRIFTING ALONG WITH THE TUMBLING TUMBLEWEEDS.

CLAYTON MOORE

THE LONE RANGER

(Left) Couple number three, Mr. Herbert Kramer and Mrs. Joan Ganz Kramer, met while on the faculty at Jericho—he was a science teacher, while she taught music. Mr. Kramer left teaching to become an attorney. The couple divide their time between Long Island and Florida.

BILLY THE KID

● GENE AUTRY, 'HOME ON THE RANGE'

OH, GIVE ME A HOME
WHERE THE BUFFALO ROAM,
WHERE THE DEER AND THE ANTELOPE PLAY.
WHERE SELDOM IS HEARD
A DISCOURAGING WORD
AND THE SKIES ARE NOT CLOUDY
ALL DAY.

Yee-haw! Still more Jericho couples: (Above) Meryl Ross Fischer and Danny Fischer, both from the class of 1970, and (inset, right), the class of 1968's Linda Glasser Rudes and Mark Rudes on either side of Mr. Ira Greene.

CLINT EASTWOOD

● GENE AUTRY, "RED RIVER VALLEY"

FROM THIS VALLEY THEY SAY YOU ARE GOING.
I WILL MISS YOUR BRIGHT EYES AND SWEET SMILE.
FOR THEY SAY YOU ARE TAKING THE SUNSHINE
THAT HAS BRIGHTENED OUR PATHWAY THE WHILE.

COME AND SIT BY MY SIDE IF YOU LOVE ME.
DO NOT HASTEN TO BID ME ADIEU.
BUT REMEMBER THE RED RIVER VALLEY
AND THE ONE THAT HAS LOVED YOU SO TRUE.

COWBOY IN THE VILLAGE PEOPLE

(Below) After a hard day of ridin' and ropin' on the range, eternally youthful Carolyn Esposito (JHS '69) and her husband, Jim McGuire, tie up their horses and join the party. At right are Tim Coville and Mr. Ira Greene.

(Above) Nice shot of Bruce Steiner ('68), in from New Jersey, with Shari Strongin ('76) and Karen Gross Lewon ('74). Shari lives in Queens; Karen, in Manhattan. She took the train from Penn Station to Oyster Bay, and, we're happy to report, arrived safely, with no Indian ambushes or armed robberies by the James Gang.

(Right) Great to see the class of '71's Kraig Libstag, who came all the way down from Vermont, and New Jerseyian Jim Rudy ('72). Speaking of doggies, the pooch behind Kraig was not one of our

• CISCO HOUSTON, "WHOOPIE TY-YI-YO, GIT ALONG LITTLE DOGIES"

AS I WAS A-WALKIN' ONE MORNING FOR PLEASURE,
I SPIED A YOUNG COWBOY A-RIDIN' ALONG.
HIS HAT WAS SHOVED BACK AND HIS SPURS WAS A-JINGLIN',
AND AS HE WAS RIDIN' HE WAS SINGIN' THIS SONG:

"WHOOPIE TY-YI-YO, GIT ALONG LITTLE DOGIES,
IT'S YOUR MISFORTUNE, AIN'T NONE OF MY OWN.
WHOOPIE TY-YI-YO, GIT ALONG LITTLE DOGIES,
YOU KNOW WYOMING WILL BE YOUR NEW HOME."

(Right) Michael Cohen and Jaime Smilowitz are both from the JHS class of 1984. One week later, they would celebrate their forty-year reunion, also in Oyster Bay, masterminded by Jaime, who lives in Maryland.

(Below) Jaime's older brother Neil with his daughter, Amber, who has attended more JHS reunions than you have.

● ROY ROGERS, 'DON'T FENCE ME IN'

I WANT TO RIDE TO THE RIDGE WHERE
THE WEST COMMENCES.
GAZE AT THE MOON TILL I LOSE MY SENSES.
CAN'T LOOK AT HOBBLES, AND I CAN'T STAND FENCES.
DON'T FENCE ME IN.

JESSE JAMES

(Below) Another pair of JHS sibs: Randye Ringler ('72), second from left, and Meri Ringler ('70), second from right, with Rick Scher ('70), far left, and Mr. Ira Greene, far right. Meri flew in from her home in Colorado.

● MARTY ROBBINS, 'BIG IRON'

THERE WAS FORTY FEET BETWEEN 'EM
WHEN THEY STOPPED TO MAKE THEIR PLAY.
AND THE SWIFTESS OF THE RANGØR IS STILL TALKED ABOUT TODAY.
TEXAS RED HAD NOT CLEARED LEATHER
FORE A BULLET FAIRLY RIPPED.
AND THE RANGØR'S AIM WAS DEADLY,
WITH THE BIG IRON ON HIS HIP.

IT WAS OVER IN A MOMENT.
AND THE FOLKS HAD ØATHERED ROUND.
THERE BEFORE THEM LAY THE BODY OF THE OUTLAW ON THE GROUND.
OH, HE MIGHT HAVE WENT ON LIVING,
BUT HE MADE ONE FATAL SLIP :
WHEN HE TRIED TO MATCH THE RANGØR
WITH THE BIG IRON ON HIS HIP.
BIG IRON ON HIS HIP.

QUICKDRAW MCGRAW

AND BABALOOEY

(Left) Three friends from the class of 1969: Laurie Mattes Rosenthal, who flew up from Florida; Carolyn Esposito; and Ilene Soberman Levine. That's Philip Bashe ('72), about to ride a bucking bronco in a rodeo, behind them.

(Right): Looking great are Anne Gruber and Toni Kalfus Saunders from the class of 1969.

(Far right) Classmates Paul Jendrzejewski and Sharon Becker Marcovics, both 1968 grads.

TOM MIX

● JOHNNY CASH, 'BURY ME NOT ON THE LONE PRAIRIE'

'O BURY ME NOT ON THE
LONE PRAIRIE.'
THESE WORDS CAME SAD
AND MOURNFULLY
FROM THE PALLID LIPS OF
A YOUTH WHO LAY
ON HIS DYING BED
AT THE CLOSE OF DAY.

COWBOY ELVIS

• THE EAGLES, 'DESPERADO'

DESPERADO, WHY DON'T YOU COME TO YOUR SENSES?

YOU BEEN OUT RIDIN' FENCES FOR SO LONG NOW.

OH, YOU'RE A HARD ONE,
I KNOW THAT YOU GOT YOUR REASONS.
THESE THINGS THAT ARE PLEASIN' YOU,
CAN HURT YOU SOMEHOW.

DON'T YOU DRAW THE QUEEN OF DIAMONDS, BOY,
SHE'LL BEAT YOU IF SHE'S ABLE.
YOU KNOW THE QUEEN OF HEARTS IS ALWAYS YOUR BEST BET.

NOW IT SEEMS TO ME SOME FINE THINGS
HAVE BEEN LAID UPON YOUR TABLE,
BUT YOU ONLY WANT THE ONES THAT YOU CAN'T GET.

(Left): The New England contingent of the class of 1968 is represented by Terry Drucker, who drove down from Massachusetts, and William Green and his wife, June Kinigstein, from Rhode Island.

(Right): Ellen Siber ('69), Adrienne Fils ('78), and Nadine Nash ('79).

(Right): Neil Brodbeck, Paul Sarris, and Peter Goodgold, all from the class of 1969. Peter, who lives in Florida, hopped on a plane at the last minute to make it to the Big Party. No stage coaches available, we guess.

URBAN COWBOY

"Yo, Sheriff Kotter!
Up your nose with a rubber hose!"

JOHN TRAVOLTA

● TENNESSEE ERNIE FORD,
"OH, SHENANDOAH"

OH, SHENANDOAH, I HEAR YOU CALLING.
HI-OH, YOU ROLLIN' RIVER.
OH, SHENANDOAH, I LONG TO HEAR YOU.
HI-OH, I'M BOUND AWAY
'CROSS THE WIDE MISSOURI.

1973, Russell Mayhew and Judy
Friedman Sadick.

(Left): Great smiles
from Caryn Buchner
Coville ('74), and
Steven Wainick and
Andrew Geyer, both from the class of '75.

(Below) Vinny "Whatta
Head of Hair"
Saladino (JHS '66) and his wife, Susan, came along with the class of
'68's Michelle Edelheit
Black.

(Below) We always love it when younger alumni attend, bringing down the average age—especially when it's Linda Goldstein Sherman ('77) and Shari Goldberg Stearns ('76), both of whom grew up in West Birchwood.

(Below) Hey, look who just arrived from Mansfield, Massachusetts, by way of Pony Express: Ruth Cullen Mueller from the JHS class of 1969.

BUFFALO BILL

● SONS OF THE PIONEERS,
"I'M AN OLD COWHAND"

I'M AN OLD COWHAND
FROM THE RIO GRANDE.
BUT MY LEGS AINT BOWED
AND MY CHEEKS AINT TAN.
I'M A COWBOY WHO NEVER SAW
A COW.
NEVER ROPED A STEER,
CAUSE I DONT KNOW HOW!
SURE AINT A-FIXIN TO START IN NOW.

YIPPIE YI YO KA-YAH!

(Left) How's your social life? Probably not as active as retired guidance counselor Mr. Andrew Chaglasian, pictured here with Pam Reiber Schreiber ('68). While at the gathering, he accepted an invitation from the class of '64 to attend its sixty-year-reunion later that night. Two parties in the same day? Not bad for ninety-four!

(Below): Judy Friedman Sadick and Marilyn Pike Wood graduated in 1973, while Randy Ringler, in the white hat, escaped a year early, in '72. She was still sixteen when she went off to Cornell University.

DOC HOLLIDAY

(Below) Nice shot of the class of 1968's Maxine Suchotine Rand and Betsy Levy Sgroi.

• TEX OWENS. "CATTLE CALL"

THE CATTLE ARE PROWLIN',
THE COYOTES ARE HOWLIN',
WAY OUT WHERE THE DOGIES BAWL.
WHERE SPURS ARE A JINGLIN',
A COWBOY IS SINGIN'
THIS LONESOME CATTLE CALL.

It's a little-known historical fact that, on the old prairie, Jerichonians were highly prized on the marriage market, though we have no direct knowledge of any mail-order brides. But here are three JHS alums and their spouses:

(Above) Mary Ann Johnston Biase ('69) and her husband, Vincent Biase, who live in Westbury.

(Right) Debbie DiMaria Silvestri ('70) and her husband, Craig Silvestri, doing the respectful cowboy-hat-over-chest pose.

YOSEMITE SAM

• MERLE HAGGARD AND WILLIE NELSON, "PANCHO AND LEFTY"

THE POETS TELL HOW PANCHO FELL,
AND LEFTY'S LIVIN' IN CHEAP HOTELS.
THE DESERT'S QUIET, CLEVELAND'S COLD,
AND SO THE STORY ENDS, WE'RE TOLD.
PANCHO NEEDS YOUR PRAYERS, IT'S TRUE,
BUT SAVE A FEW FOR LEFTY TOO.
HE ONLY DID WHAT HE HAD TO DO,
AND NOW HE'S GROWING OLD.

CHUCK CONNORS

THE RIFLEMAN

● RED STEAGALL
"LITTLE JOE THE WRANGLER"

LITTLE JOE THE WRANGLER WILL WRANGLER NEVER MORE.
HIS DAYS WITH THE REMUDA,
THEY'RE ALL DONE.
LONG ABOUT LAST APRIL
THAT HE RODE INTO OUR CAMP,
JUST A LITTLE TEXAS STRAY AND ALL ALONE.

NEXT MORNING JUST AT DAYBREAK,
WE FOUND WHERE ROCKET FELL,
DOWN IN A WASHOUT TWENTY FEET BELOW.
BENEATH HIS HORSE HIS LIFE HAD GONE,
HIS SPUNG HAD RUN ITS KNELL
WAS OUR LITTLE TEXAS STRAY
POOR WRANGLER JOE.

(Above) Marty Arkin ('68) models the latest in cutting-edge cowboy headwear. Behind him are three folks from the class of '64: Marilyn DellaVecchia Profita, Billy "the Las Vegas Kid" Hershkowitz, and Robert Martin. Both he and Billy are in the JHS Alumni Hall of Fame. At right is Lenore Shapiro Kahne ('70) and (back to camera) Mr. Ira Greene.

(Right) Real nice photo of Jill Theirman Parrott, from the class of '72 and husband Harry Parrott. The couple live in Jericho and have three grown children.

(Above) Rik "Man in Black" Kellerman and Mike Diehl from the class of 1975 with their classmate Steven Wainick and his wife, Sandra Peterson, who graduated JHS in 1978.

WILLIAM HART

● WOODY GUTHRIE, "BUFFALO GALS"

BUFFALO GALS, WON'T YOU COME OUT
TONIGHT. COME OUT TONIGHT,
COME OUT TONIGHT?
BUFFALO GALS, WON'T YOU COME OUT
TONIGHT AND DANCE
BY THE LIGHT OF THE MOON?

(Right) Who is that masked woman? Why, it's Gloria Rothstein ('75), and, no, she's not about to stick up an unsuspecting bank. Also shown are the class of 1969's Toni Kalfus Saunders, Robert Spielman, chatting with Dean Notaro, and Dan Yetman in the light-blue shirt.

SHERIFF BART

BLAZING SADDLES

• DAVID BLUE, 'OUTLAW MAN'

I AM AN OUTLAW.
I WAS BORN AN OUTLAW'S SON.
THE HIGHWAY IS MY LEGACY,
ON THE HIGHWAY I WILL RUN.
IN ONE HAND I'VE A BIBLE,
IN THE OTHER I'VE GOT A GUN.
WELL, DON'T YOU KNOW ME,
I'M THE MAN WHO WON.
WOMAN, DON'T TRY TO LOVE ME,
DON'T TRY TO UNDERSTAND.
A LIFE UPON THE ROAD IS THE LIFE OF AN OUTLAW MAN.

(Above) Meri Ringler, Mr. Herbert Kramer, Dan Fischer, Lenore Shapiro Kahne, and Mrs. Joan Ganz Kramer. Meri, Dan, and Lenore are all from the JHS class of 1970.

(Above) Just three weeks before, Caryn Buchner Coville and Dianne Oliva from '74 attended their class's fifty-year reunion. Philip Bashe ('72) looks mighty happy to be among them.

MICHAEL LANODON

LITTLE JOE CARTWRIGHT BONANZA

Brothers and sisters galore on this page.

● KAY KYSER, "JINGLE, JANOLE, JINOLE"
YIPPIE YAY!
THERE'LL BE NOT WEDDING BELLS FOR TODAY
'CAUSE I GOT SPURS THAT JINGLE, JANOLE, JINOLE.
AS I GO RIDIN' MERRILY ALONG
AND THEY SING, "OH, AIN'T YOU GLAD YOU'RE SINGLE"
AND THAT SONG AIN'T SO VERY FAR FROM WRONG.

WALTER BRENNAN

Around 7:30 p.m., a strange phenomenon occurred, as the beautiful day turned—just like that!—into a gorgeous night.

(Right) Walter Bachman, Mark Grand, and Marty Arkin, all from the class of '68, form a huddle.

● PATSY MONTANA
'I WANNA BE A COWBOY'S SWEETHEART'

I WANNA BE A COWBOY'S SWEETHEART.
 I WANT TO LEARN TO ROPE AND TO RIDE.
 I WANT TO RIDE O'ER THE PLAINS AND THE DESERT,
 OUT WEST OF THE GREAT DIVIDE.
 I WANT TO HEAR THE COYOTES HOWLIN'
 WHILE THE SUN SETS IN THE WEST.
 I WANT TO BE A COWBOY'S SWEETHEART,
 THAT'S THE LIFE THAT I LOVE BEST.

(Below) Anne Scher and husband Rick, with Meri Ringler in the middle, and at right, Edward Scher and Denise Cacciola Houlihan. Rick, Ed, and Meri are all from the class of 1970, though you'd never know it.

(Right) Well, hello to you too (you two?! Adrienne Fils ('78) and Nadine Nash ('79).

● ERNEST TUBB,
"THE YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS"

THERE'S A YELLOW ROSE IN TEXAS THAT I AM GONNA SEE.
NOBODY ELSE COULD MISS HER,
NOT HALF AS MUCH AS ME.
-SHE CRIED SO WHEN I LEFT HER,
IT LIKE TO BROKE MY HEART.
AND IF I EVER FIND HER,
WE'LL NEVER MOVE APART.

SHE'S THE SWEETEST LITTLE ROSEBUD
THAT TEXAS EVER KNEW.
HER EYES ARE BRIGHT AS DIAMONDS,
THEY SPARKLE LIKE THE DEW.
YOU MAY TALK ABOUT YOUR
CLEMENTINE AND SING OF ROSA LEE,
BUT THE YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS IS THE ONLY GIRL FOR ME.

YUL BRYNNER

STEVE MCQUEEN

It's really true what they say about the Western desert: how the broiling sun gives way to bone-chilling nights. A lot of us cowpokes took refuge inside. (Fact is, it wasn't cold at all, but given our ages and the lack of blood circulation below the waist, a lot of folks looked like they were in need of shawls.)

(Above) Jill Thierman Parrott ('72) and Bruce Steiner ('68).

(Right) Not sure what's going here, but based on facial expressions, it looks like perhaps someone just told a filthy joke about an old cowhand and his cow. Passing west to east, we have Ilene Soberman Levine, David Fischbein, and Ellen Siber, all from the JHS class of 1969.

(Far right) Linda Fils and Neil Brodbeck, also from '69.

CALAMITY JANE

After a hard day out on the range, everyone tugged off their boots, spurs, and chaps, and sat around a roaring campfire that we lit in the middle of the table. We called for Ol' Stinky, the chuckwagon cook, who got out his cast-iron frying pan and whipped up a baked-beans-and-assorted-desert-varmints casserole that really stuck to your ribs. Broke a few, too.

(Below) After being rudely thrown out of the Homestead (something about a fire?), everyone hung outside: Neil Brodbeck ('69), Sandi Chertok Clark ('72) and David Fischbein ('69), and Peter Goodgold ('69).

● PATSY CLINE, "SOUTH OF THE BORDER, DOWN MEXICO WAY"

SOUTH OF THE BORDER, DOWN MEXICO WAY,
THAT'S WHERE THEY FELL IN LOVE
WHEN STARS ABOVE CAME OUT TO PLAY..
NOW AS THEY WONDER,
THEIR THOUGHTS EVER STRAY.
SOUTH OF THE BORDER DOWN MEXICO WAY.

(Below) Ellen Meister ('75) and husband Mike stopped by late. Just a few days earlier, Ellen was right around the corner at Theodore's Books doing a book signing and Q&A session to promote her latest novel, Divorce Towers.

It took thirty-five pages, but finally got a photo of the three Fils gals together. From left to right, Ruth Cullen Mueller ('69), Denise Nash ('79), Roy Fiorino and Kraig Libstag ('71), Adrienne Fils ('78), Linda Fils ('69), Diane Fils Drake ('82), and June Fiorino.

(Right) From the class of 1975, Andrew Geyer, Mike Diehl, and Rik Kellerman, with Linda Goldstein Sherman ('77).

● FRANKIE LAINE, "THEME TO RAWHIDE"

KEEP ROLLIN' ROLLIN' ROLLIN',
THOUGH THE STREAMS ARE SWOLLEN,
KEEP THEM DOGGIES ROLLIN' RAWHIDE!
THROUGH RAIN AND WIND AND WEATHER,
HELL BENT FOR LEATHER,
WISHING MY GIRL WAS BY MY SIDE.
ALL THE THINGS I'M MISSIN', GOOD VITTLES, LOVE, AND KISSIN'
ARE WAITING AT THE END OF MY RIDE.
MOVE 'EM ON, HEAD 'EM UP, HEAD 'EM UP, MOVE 'EM ON,
MOVE 'EM ON, HEAD 'EM UP, RAWHIDE!
CUT 'EM OUT, RIDE 'EM IN, RIDE 'EM IN, CUT 'EM OUT,
CUT 'EM OUT, RIDE 'EM IN, RAWHIDE!

SLIM AND BYRON WHITMAN, "COWBOYS HEAVEN"

TONIGHT I'M A TIRED, WEARY COWBOY
WHO'S BEEN IN THE SADDLE ALL DAY,
SEARCHING THE HILLS AND THE VALLEYS
FOR CATTLE THAT HAS GONE ASTRAY.

OLD PAINT IS TOO TIRED AND LEG WEARY
TO LIVE ON TO RIDE NO MORE.
BUT WHEN OUR LIVES ARE ALL OVER,
WE'LL RIDE ON THE OTHER SHORE.

(Below) The Homestead was witness to some strange occurrences as the party wound down. Exhibit A: class of '75 members Mike Diehl, Ellen Meister, Rik Kellerman, and Andrew Geyer appear oblivious to the apparition projected on the wall (at right). A respected paranormal company confirmed for us that it was none other than Filo T. Pegbottom, the wealthy bootlegger who founded the omelet of Jericho in 1724 and whose spirit haunts JHS reunions to this day.

JAMES ARNESS

MARSHAL MATT DILLON

(Below) Exhibit B: as usual, the Jericho Jayhawk over-imbibed, became violent, and had to be forcibly escorted off the premises. Once outside, the beaky son of a bitch tried biting Philip Bashe ('72) in the jugular vein, leaving an ugly hickey. Phil, thinking fast, threw him to the ground and pummeled him with a plastic blow-up cactus. Thanks to Anne Gruber ('69) for alertly capturing the unprovoked attack on her cellphone. According to the state prosecutor, these photos "will serve as key evidence to help send Mr. Jayhawk up the river for a very long time." Phil is also suing him in civil court for mental anguish and for his using an unregistered beak as a lethal weapon.
